(this link will go live when the show airs).

WHAT IS THIS?

This is interactive radio, an experiment in audience partici... (SAY IT!)... pation.

The radio show will air on WFMU (91.1 fm, www.wfmuplaylists/shows/112754) for one hour from midnight Friday, March 25 to 1 am Saturday March 26, 2022 (East Coast US time) during Rich Hazelton's radio program The Inflatable Squirrel Carcass.

The music is a mashup, part cartoon, part rock and roll, telling the story of two fun-loving kids: Rocky J. Squirrel and his sidekick Bullwinkle Moose, as they get sidetracked in a big old run-down house where Boris and Natasha are hatching a fiendish plot to build a Canadian Mountie. And then... well, you'll have to tune in to find out!

The first time Boris says "I thought you'd never ask!", shout "I DIDN'T!"

The second time Boris says "I thought you'd never ask!", scream along with Meatloaf.

React in horror again when Boris repeats the no-goodnik rules.

After the song:

Use your ray gun to scrootch Dudley after Gibney says "Scrootch him now."

Use your raygun to scrootch Bullwinkle after he says "Just in time, too!"

Put your party hat on again when Rocky talks about the party.

Then get ready for the floorshow!

Unscrootch each member of the floor show before they sing.

If you are dressed the part, act out your character when it's your turn, the order is: Nell,

When Dudley sings about the ringing of a bell,
everyone ring your bell.

Play your toy trumpet during the fanfare.
During the end of the fanfare Bullwinkle says
"I'm coming as fast as I can", respond:

"SO'S DUDLEY!"

Right after the fanfare Bullwinkle recites "I love little pussy", respond: "SO DOES DUDLEY!"
Hold up a bouquet of daffodils when Bullwinkle sings about them.
